

NOT A GAME

There's no pause button on my life. Alcohol can impair my judgment and lead to legal consequences. I don't have the time to mess up what I've got going for me with underage drinking.

I DON'T PLAY THAT

NOT A GAME

My life is real and so are the people in it. Underage drinking can hurt my relationships with those I care about. My friends and family mean too much for me to take that risk.

I DON'T PLAY THAT

NOT A GAME

I only get one life. There are no respawns. I won't chance it with underage drinking. The safety and health risks just aren't worth it.

PLAY THAT

NÔT A GAME

In real life, I'm in it to win it. I won't let underage drinking block
my success. That isn't cool. Period.

I win by making choices
that set me up for success.
Underage drinking can get in the way of that by negatively affecting my decisions.
I am NOT taking that risk!

I Dont
Play That

NOT A GAME

My goals are important to me and I know that achievements take focus. Underage drinking can mess with that, leaving me defeated. My victory is living alcohol-free.

I DONT
PLAY THAT

NOT A GAME

Life is full of choices and consequences. That's why I don't drink alcohol. Underage drinking can lead to troubles that last a long time. I don't play that.

I DONT
PLAY THAT

NOT A GAME

Winning in real life means making choices that set me up for success. Underage drinking gets in the way of that by messing with my health, my relationships, and my safety. My winning strategy is being alcohol-free.
